Discovery

Behind every door is an exciting, new discovery for your toddler. Set the stage for more delightful surprises by using color in a fun and unexpected way. Here, we punched up an often-overlooked closet interior with a bright lime green.

Hideaway

The sliding barn door and bunk bed ladder work with a nature-inspired palette to create the feeling of a private tree house. Fresh yellow and green accents keep the blue walls from becoming too heavy. A hideaway your son will love.

Whimsy

Start with a palette of sweet, soft colors. Add in pop art appeal by framing out the oversized polka dot pattern painted on the wall. Balance with pure white accessories. Viola. You've just created a room with carefree, whimsical attitude.

Tea Time

Hosting fiends for tea is the perfect way to show off a darling room. Celebrate youth by painting furniture in playful, sweetheart shades. As your daughter grows up, it's easy to switch to more sophisticated, mature colors that still work with the neutral walls.

Zoom

Rev up the fun with a room that zooms. Put the pedal to the metal with a bold, high-contrast color scheme that packs energy, intensity and a gravity-defying racetrack. Let imagination drive your design and the road can lead you anywhere.

Frolic

A picture rail is a great way to showcase her ever changing views of the world. Encourage her to frolic among the blossoms, rainbows and other delights that surround us and her future will be as bright as the colors you chose for her room.
